

BSA (5mg/ml)

BSA standard is a high-quality calibrator, widely used for total protein determination experiments to establish a standard curve and calibration control. BSA is generally recognized as a calibration protein for total protein quantification. This standard can be used as a protein concentration calibration standard in BCA, Bradford or other protein determination experiments.

| | |
|-------------------|---------------|
| Catalog No. | 210004 |
| Size | 1mL / 10mL |
| Product Category | Protein Assay |
| Storage/Stability | -20°C/1 year |
| Shipping | Gel Packs |

www.realgenelabs.com

For Research Use only